THIRSTING FOR MORE

Now in my fifth year as chaplain at the University of Maryland I can honestly say that I am as excited as my first day when I was first appointed by Cardinal Wuerl to the Catholic Student Center. I recall my initial nerves as I returned to my alma mater, wondering if there was anything I could offer the University community after so many years. The answer came quickly during my first days: I better rely on the Holy Spirit and be guided by our Lord each day. Luckily, I have tried to do just that—and thanks be to God—the Catholic Student Center is thriving!

There is a vibrant and active community here at UMD and one need only to witness this to realize God is at work. We've witnessed students' lives turning from a secular mindset to faith in Jesus—through the sacraments and the support of their brothers and sisters who desire to meet our Lord each day. Our staff of campus ministers and FOCUS missionaries bring the Gospel to so many. The Kingdom of God is present through them—and for this I am truly amazed and humbled.

My great desire is that our brothers and sisters who have yet to hear the call from Jesus will be reached. There will always be work to be done here. Our Lord thirsts! He thirsts for souls! I give my heartfelt thanks to you all who support the mission here at the University of Maryland, and encourage this support to continue each day—through your prayers and offerings which allow the mission to continue.

CHAPLAINS OF THE CATHOLIC STUDENT CENTER

Fr. William Tepe (1955-'67)

The Catholic community of UMD owes Fr. Tepe a great gratitude for serving as the first diocesan chaplain and overseeing the construction of the Center in 1965. He began in 1955 as the chaplain for the campus Newman Club. Fr. Tepe led the club's development of catechism courses, Pre-Cana conferences, the daily Rosary, and Communion breakfasts. Planning and fundraising for the new Center began in 1958. Fr. Tepe's hard work came to fruition when the Center was dedicated on April 10, 1965. He faithfully continued his ministry on campus until 1967.

Fr. William Kane (1964-'86)

Fr. Kane arrived at Maryland in 1964 and officially took over the chaplaincy in 1967. Fr. Kane showed an exceptional care for the students of the University. He drew upon the enthusiasm of students by creating student leadership committees to advise the Chaplains. Through this involvement, the Center was able to institute new programs of study and community service. Many students affirmed Fr. Kane's empathy and wisdom through his individual counseling. Now Msgr. Kane's 22-year service to the Catholic Student Center culminated in 1986 and he now resides at Little Flower Parish in Bethesda.

Fr. Thomas Kalita (1986-'94)

Fr. Kalita joined the Center in 1986. Throughout his tenure, Fr. Kalita developed the liturgical capacities of the Center. First, the coat room was refurbished into a chapel to reserve the Blessed Sacrament. Later, Fr. Kalita inaugurated a Sunday evening Mass that became the most popular. Finally, in 1991, Fr. Kalita led the construction of the permanent chapel in place of the old auditorium. He also expanded the RCIA program to include preparation for Baptism and Confirmation. Fr. Kalita's service to the Center ended in 1994 and he now serves as the Pastor of St. Peter's Parish in Olney, MD.

Fr. Robert Keffer (1994-'99)

Fr. Keffer arrived at the CSC in 1976 as associate chaplain. After a period at the CSC, he was assigned to the chaplaincy at George Washington University.

Fr. Keffer returned to UMD in 1994 to serve as chaplain after gaining experience at GWU and as the Director of Campus Ministry for the Archdiocese of Washington. Fr. Keffer is now retired.

Fr. Bill Byrne (1999-2007)

Fr. Bill was assigned the chaplaincy beginning in 1999. In his time as chaplain, Fr. Bill started many programs to foster the community and help students discern their vocation. These initiatives include: Wednesday night dinners, bringing FOCUS to campus, building the grotto, starting the Knights of Columbus and Catholic Daughters, and instituting the Vianney and Fiat dinners for men's and women's discernment. Fr. Bill's legacy lives on through his favorite memory: hiring Paulina. Fr. Bill is now the pastor of St. Peter's on Capitol Hill.

Fr. Kyle Ingels (2007-'10)

Fr. Ingels service to the CSC began in 2007. He witnessed uniquely to the University by acting as the chaplain for the varsity football team under coach Ralph Friedgen. He also invited Fr. Frank Donio to assist at the Center, a relationship which continues today. Fr. Kyle will always be thankful for the years he served at UMD. They had been especially helpful now that he serves as the Director of Campus Ministry for the Diocese of Colorado Springs. He made lots of friends at Maryland and wishes all the best to the current Catholic Terps!

Fr. Rob Walsh (2010-Present)

Fr. Rob is a UMD alum ('92) and returned to the campus in 2010 as chaplain. His primary aim is to foster the Catholic culture among students. He initiated the remodeling of the worship space at the CSC, with its dedication in April of 2013 as the Chapel of Christ the Divine Teacher. Fr. Rob is particularly proud of the many students who have entered religious life and seminary, and others who've gone on to serve as FOCUS missionaries and in other missionary programs.

Adrienne Miller '66: widowed, 3 children, 1 grandson, retired human services worker. Her one piece of advice is to find a Catholic community where you can be fed.

Jim DeGeorge '69: married, retired teacher and principal, taught for 15 years in UMD's college of education, supporter of St. Anne's Children home, member of St. John's in Columbia, MD. Now encounters Christ through Daily Prayer.

Aileen (Randolph) Chadwick '66
Married Joe—met at CSC, 3 sons, 4 grandchildren, in NJ. Trustee for public library; lector, EM and taught CCD.

'70s

George Ramsey '74: single, member of St. Anthony's in DC, but also frequents the nearby Franciscan Monastery, the National Shrine, and St. Anselm's Benedictine Abbey. His favorite memory of the CSC was Bible Study. His advice is to get to Mass and the sacraments as often as you can, pray the rosary!

Peter Knapstein '78: married, member of St. Joseph's Catholic Community, Knights of Columbus usher program at the Basilica of the National Shrine. He is currently encountering Christ through keeping faith and giving thanks.

Leo Smith, class of 1965 is a retired Facilities Supervisor from So. Calif Gas Co. He lives in Springfield, MO with his wife Susan who have been married for 45 years and have three sons. He is an avid sports memorabilia collector, especially baseball memorabilia. His favorite CSC memory is acting as president in Spring '65. During his time at the CSC he encountered Christ through meeting other Catholics. He now encounters Christ through attending one extra Mass a week and advises that everyone get involved in their parish!

Jim Palmer '83: director of Loyola on the Potomac (retreat center), member of Mount Calvary Catholic Church in Forestville, MD. His favorite memory of the CSC was that it gave him a place to be a man of faith when it wasn't the norm in his dorm or fraternity house.

Thomas Costello '86: married with two teenagers, retiring this year from a successful career as a licensed social worker, Masters degrees in social work and theology, hopes to use theology degree in retirement. His advice is to keep Jesus in your heart and share Him wherever you go.

Barbara Trainor '87: married, works in fundraising, sits on the board of a nonprofit Cure SMA, attends

Our Lady of Angels which is run by Capuchin Franciscans, and fundraises for the Capuchin Missions in NM, she lives in San Francisco, CA. Her favorite memory is of decorating the Christmas tree.

'90s

Angela Busby '97: director of youth ministry at St. Peter's Parish in Olney, MD. She encountered Christ at the CSC through friendships and service.

CLASS NOTES: WHERE ARE THEY NOW?

Deacon Sean Keller '91: married to Sheri, 2 daughters, retired Air Force Reserve Intelligence Officer, current Federal Contractor, ordained a permanent deacon in 2013, serves at the Basilica of the Assumption, campus ministry at the University of Baltimore, the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulcher of Jerusalem. His favorite memory at the CSC was Sunday evening Mass with Fr. Tom Kalita.

Gary Morris '95: married to Katherine, one son, Dean of Natural Sciences at St. Edwards's university in Austin, TX. His favorite memory is the graduate student group retreat and the Bible Walk.

Matthew Albaugh '04: single, math professor at Roosevelt University, member of St. Mary of Perpetual Help parish in Chicago. His piece of advice is to find young adult groups at local parishes!

Jennifer Ewing '04: college counselor at Cristo Rey Jesuit High School in Baltimore, MD, receiving M.Ed in educational leadership, member of the Catholic School leaders cohort at Loyola University. Her favorite memory was the Baccalaureate Mass .

Fr Patrick Lewis '04: ordained in 2012, serves as parochial vicar at Sacred Heart in Bowie, MD. His advice is to make a point to keep up with your friends.

Fr David Wells '05: ordained in 2010, serves as parochial vicar at St. John Neumann Parish in Gaithersburg, MD. His favorite memories are the Blob's Park polka dance outings.

Jeannette (Lopez) Garcia '06: married to Luis, 1 child, stay at home mother, active in a mother's Bible Study, leads another Bible Study, presents on NFP with Luis, lives in South Central PA. Her favorite memory is helping Fr. Bill host a monthly daily Mass in Spanish.

Christine Ikeda '06: single, assistant professor at the University of New Orleans in Naval Architecture and Marine Engineering. Her favorite memory was coming to the church at the Easter Vigil. She is currently encountering Christ through going to mass and living the Gospel through action.

Mary Sullivan '06: married to Matt (Catholic Terp '02), three daughters, homeschooling mom, freelance communications, serves on the board of Catholic Review in Baltimore, MD, marriage prep work with Matt, member of St. Mary of the Mills in Laurel, MD. One of her strongest memories was being at the CSC at the time of St. John Paul II's death, everyone flocking to Mass solemnly the first Sunday following, and on the day of his funeral all of the Catholic Terps wore their T-Shirts as a sign of unity and turned out in force for a special memorial mass for him.

Fr. Kevin Regan, class 2003 was ordained as a priest in 2008 and has served in many parishes since then. He enjoys returning to the CSC to see how the students continue to encounter Christ through the sacraments and community life. His favorite memory of the CSC is helping out with the freshman retreat as a senior. While at the CSC he encountered Christ through Mass, Eucharistic adoration, and community life and continues to do the same but with the addition of more private and scriptural prayer. His advice is to pray, slow down, and discern involvement in your parish, overall BE OPEN! (with his mother Mary Regan)

Fr Peter Martyr (Patrick) Yungwirth, OP '06: ordained as a Dominican priest in 2014, serves as assistant chaplain at Providence College in Rhode Island. He encountered Christ through someone inviting him to meet Him. He now encounters him in many ways but particularly through the Mass.

CLASS NOTES: WHERE ARE THEY NOW?

Maureen Smith, class of 2010 spent two years discerning Religious Life with a community in New York and now works for the Archdiocese of Washington. She has started ministry efforts to help those suffering from eating disorders and other addictions and has given a Fiat talk on the subject. Her favorite CSC memory was the first timer's retreat.

While at the CSC she encountered Christ through daily mass and adoration and currently encounters Him in contemplative prayer.

Colleen Esper Negron '08: married to Oscar, 2 children, living in Houston, TX. Colleen encountered Christ at the CSC through Fr. Bill Byrne who she said "was an amazing mentor to our community bringing joy and heartfelt wisdom". Fr. Byrne baptized her son David.

Jessica Mealey '08: married, 1 son, Spanish teacher. When she was at the CSC she encountered Christ through all of the people, reconciliation, and Holy Hour. Now she experiences Christ through prayer and family.

Danielle Miller '08: teacher in Montgomery County Public Schools, former youth leader at Ascension Catholic Church, member of St. Hugh's parish. Her favorite CSC memory is her First Timer's retreat where she met her best friends, Myca, Maria, Megan, and Kelsey who then went together to build for Habitat for Humanity in SC.

Chris McGrath '09: married to Kaitlyn '09 (Seith), 2 children, senior accountant, serves as a lector and Eucharistic minister, member of Our Lady of the Fields parish in Millersville, MD. He is currently encountering Christ through his growing family, seeing the selflessness of his wife, the generosity of friends and family, and his opportunities to sacrifice for his children.

Kevin Ewing '10: Seminarian for the Archdiocese of Baltimore, 3rd year of theological studies at the North American College in Rome. His favorite CSC memories are just being with the good people he knew during his time at the CSC and the annual pig roast.

Tony Prebula '10: married to Lacy '08, lead brewer for Union Craft Brewing, live in Gaithersburg, MD. His favorite CSC memory was performing a skit with his small group on retreat reenacting the resurrection of Lazarus using R&B song titles.

Fr. Christopher Seith '10: priest for the Archdiocese of Washington, finishing studies at the Pontifical North American College in Rome. His piece of advice is to not artificially hold on to what you had at the CSC. When you graduate, the Lord is to be found in your new state of life, not back at the CSC.

Joey Hager '11: single, worked with Habitat for Humanity, continues to volunteer with Habitat, currently sales representative, member at a historic church in the heart of downtown Charleston, SC. His favorite memories are the trips to get the famously massive CSC Christmas trees.

Stephanie (Hayes) Hambleton '11: married to Johnny, pregnant with their 1st child, former teacher, current nanny. Her piece of advice is to look for young adult groups and continue making faith filled friendships.

DRESS REGULATION

1. Student dress in the Center will follow closely University regulations. Boys may not wear bermudas and girls may not wear slacks or bermudas during planned events. On Sundays it is also recommended that girls not wear slacks or bermudas.

Abby Holtz '11: single, teaching English and ESOL at Eleanor Roosevelt High School in Greenbelt, MD, living in Silver Spring, MD and attending Mass there at John the Baptist parish. Her favorite memory of the CSC was counting donation money with Cat (Catherine Eligius) and joking about everything, including why Fr. Rob and Ann trusted them with that job.

Darren Taillie '11: single, flight test engineer, member of St. John the Evangelist Church in Mahopac, NY. He now encounters Christ in the beauty of nature and in relationships with others.

Neda Karimian '12: ABA therapist for children with autism, involved in youth ministry, volunteers at Mount Washington Pediatric Hospital. Her piece of advice is to give yourself time to adjust to your new routine, especially if it is totally different from college.

Alyssa Maccarone '12: single, working in statistics department of Mathematics Policy Research, lives in Silver Spring with 2 roommates, attends young adult events around Bethesda and DC, member of Our Lady of Lourdes in Bethesda, MD. She encountered Christ at the CSC in the deep, real relationships she formed with the people who welcomed her here. She is now learning how to surrender her will to Christ and let Him guide her through her decisions.

Kevin ('11) and Cathy ('12) McTighe got married in July of 2014, live in Germantown, MD.

Both of the McTighes are active with the youth in their community.

Kevin is a PE teacher at St. John the Evangelist Catholic School and coaches many sports including Varsity girls tennis coach at Damascus HS, JV baseball coach at Rockville HS, Varsity boys' basketball at Rockville HS, and 3rd-5th grade boys' basketball for Rockville area boys. Cathy is director of high school youth ministry for St. Paul Catholic Church in Damascus, MD where Kevin often helps out. She is also a preschool aide at a Catholic school and leads a middle school Bible Study.

While at the CSC Kevin and Cathy both encountered Christ through the relationships they formed in Bible Studies, playing ping-pong, Kevin's participation in the Knights of Columbus, and meeting each other! Kevin adds in that Fr. Rob's homilies really hit home with him and helped him to grow closer to Christ. They continue to encounter Christ through their marriage and through the youth that they work with everyday.

CLASS NOTES: WHERE ARE THEY NOW?

Lawrence Rozario '13: single, working towards a 2nd bachelor's degree, member of St. John the Baptist Parish. His piece of advice is to always keep Jesus the Lord of your life.

Kristin Scanlan '13: 2nd grade teacher at The Academy of St. Matthias the Apostle School, part of the liturgical committee for both the school and parish in Lanham, MD. Kristin encounters Christ when her 2nd grade students ask questions about God, knowing that He is working through them.

Christina Betta '13: 1st year veterinary student at Virginia Tech and plans to become a small animal vet. She is experiencing Christ now through relying on Him in her struggles.

Maura Donnelly '13: working as a FOCUS missionary at the University of Rhode . Despite all of the amazing events and adventures her favorite memories are the times she spent alone with Jesus in the Chapel.

Zach Hayes '13: engaged to Kristin, is a FOCUS missionary at the University of Illinois Chicago. His favorite CSC memory is playing volleyball on Friday afternoons.

David Kirk '13: single, AmeriCorps member at Habitat for Humanity in DC. His favorite memory was the winter break Habitat for Humanity service trips to South Carolina. David's advice is to make good friends outside of the faith. Let them challenge you, but don't forget your roots.

Emily Makhoulouf '13: single, worked as a civil engineer and beach lifeguard, attending New York Medical College, commissioned in the Navy this past summer. She is currently trying to encounter Christ with her fellow medical students and is hoping to train as an EM to take the Eucharist to the sick at the college's affiliated hospital.

Colin Miller '13: "I'm still stuck here." studying for his PhD at UMD. His favorite memory of the CSC was WILLYUM, his advice is don't get a PhD. He encountered Christ at the CSC cordially, and is currently encountering Christ somewhat more cordially.

Fiona Redmond '13: single, satellite engineer, working towards a master's degree at Johns Hopkins, member of St. Martin of Tours in Gaithersburg, MD. Her advice is to find a parish with a good young adult ministry to help keep you involved with your faith and meet new friends.

David Burkey '14: single, working as an accountant at KPMG, attends a young adult group at St. Jane de Chantal, Bethesda, MD, works part-time for the Catholic Apostolate Center (directed by CSC Pastoral Associate Fr. Frank Donion, S.A.C.). He said there are too many memories to choose from, but a highlight was going to drafts after noon Mass during senior year!

Zachary Crowley, class of 2012 is studying to become a priest at St. Mary's Seminary in Baltimore, MD with hopes to be ordained in 2020. He encountered Christ at the Catholic Student Center through learning about his faith and growing closer to Christ through spiritual direction. He says he encounters Christ always through prayer, especially in the Eucharist, and through his brother seminarians. His advice is pray, pray, pray!

CLASS NOTES: WHERE ARE THEY NOW?

Uniformed Services

University and trying to figure out the rest of her life. Her favorite memory from the CSC are her friends she made in Bible Study.

Josh Fatzinger '14: working as a FOCUS missionary at the University of Pittsburgh. His advice is to go to adoration everyday, he encountered Christ at the CSC through adoration. He is now encountering Christ through adoration. Josh loves adoration.

Cory Frontin '14: dating Judy Beaudoin (Catholic Terp '14), serving a term with AmeriCorps Habitat for Humanity of Metro Denver, attends Mass at St. Dominic's Parish, attends compline and evening prayer at a neighboring Dominican Novitiate, applying for graduate studies in aerospace engineering. Cory's advice is to have confidence to leave exclusively Catholic communities, but also be sure to find ways to be involved in Catholic ones. Healthy life includes both.

Jamie Morris '14: currently earning a Master's Degree in Education at the University of Portland through a service teaching program (PACE), teaching middle school math, science and religion in Sacramento, CA. Jamie encounters Christ in his students, especially those he is preparing for Confirmation.

Meghan Quinn '14: Ensign, Medical Corps, United States Navy, attending medical school at the Jay Schaefer '14: single, working for a civil engineering consulting firm in Baltimore, MD, serving the Knights of Columbus as a District Warden for the College Councils of MD and as a Recorder of the Baltimore Basilica Council, and working part-time as a webinar associate for the Catholic Apostolate Center. He encountered Christ at the CSC through his involvement with the Knights and through the relationships formed with the chaplains, staff, and fellow students.

Rebecca Vanover '14: teaching music and directing choir in Montgomery County Public Schools, assistant to the music and liturgy director at St. Francis of Assisi in Derwood, MD. Her advice is to keep in touch with people-and that takes work! Go to Theology on Tap together, meet up for Mass and brunch, make dinner, have your own BBQ in the Summer, start a Bible Study with them...the list is endless. She truly believes that her best friends from the CSC brought her closer to God, and helped her form a relationship with Him through community, friendship, and love that is lasting.

Grace Hagerty, class of 2014 is working as a single development director at St. Gabriel Church in DC and youth and young adult minister at Holy Redeemer Church in College Park. Her favorite memory of the CSC was the Holy Spirit themed retreat, Ignite, and especially the healing service that Fr. Stack held during retreat. Grace encountered Christ with the Catholic Terps at the FOCUS conference, SEEK2013. Now Grace is encountering Christ other people and the Eucharist. She says if she could offer a piece of advice it would be to find a parish and a young adult group when you graduate.
